The secrets out of the bag! Sweet little hidden piece pf paradise awaits those looking for a peaceful getaway with almost 400 ft frontage on Elk Creek! Big boulders and a little secluded piece of sandy beach as well. This is a great little spot for beating the heat, or if you love to fish, these waters are stocked by the state with Trout! The property lies on both sides of Clito Rd. The portion on the creek is in the floodplain, but the small portion on the other side of Clito Rd would be a great place to park a camper, or pitch a big tent.
