Description:

Historic Charmer! This spectacular home is situated on 5 acres of open pasture with a pond, a barn with stalls for multiple animals and plenty of room to have your own mini-farm. The interior is very spacious offering very large rooms, and would make a great home for a growing family, or a very attractive bed and breakfast. There are no neighbors in sight, which gives you a nice private setting so that you are not disturbed, however, you are only a short drive to either the Town of Independence or City of Galax. Not to mention it is only @5 minute drive from public access to the New River! You don't come across properties like this every day, and its just waiting for the right new owner who can appreciate all the unique character and charm this property has to offer.
